HIS LIFE PASSING AWAY

SIR JOHN RAPIDLY NEARING THE LAST HOUR.

Steadily Growing Feebler—His Death Now Looked For at Any Moment—The Bulletins Issued During the Day—Universal Sympathy Expressed.

OTTAWA, June 5.—3:30 a.m.—No material change in Sir John's condition. He is breathing with difficulty. Respiration now is 38.

5:10 a.m.—No material alteration in Sir John's condition. He take nourishment and sleeps quietly at intervals. His heart's action is gradually weakening.

7 a.m.—There is no change to report in Sir John's position this morning and no new facts to record. He has been very somnolent all night and exhibited no restlessness whatever.

12, noon.—From what information can be obtained there is no material change in Sir John's condition. The doctors have not entered yet for consulation.

1 p.m.—Sir John is slightly exhausted at present. The doctors will issue bulletin about 2 p.m.

2 p.m.—At our consultation to-day we find Sir John Macdonald altogether in somewhat an alarming state. His strength, which has gradually failed him during the past week, shows a marked decline since yesterday. He shows still a slight flickering of consciousness. His respirations number 38, pulse 120, and more feeble and irregular than hitherto. In our opinion his powers of life are steadily declining. (Signed) Dr. W. Powell, J. A. Grant, G. H. Wright, Geo. Ross, M.D's.

2 p.m.—Sir John is in an alarming condition and not expected to live over night.

This morning, about 9 a.m., the news from Rosscliffe was that the condition of the Premier was still unchanged, with the exception that the heart was weaker and might cease at any moment. The favorable conditions of yesterday have entirely disappeared, and the end is certainly near, although the vitality of Sir John has been something remarkable throughout, and consequently he may linger for a day or so, notwithstanding that his physicians consider otherwise. Dr. Ross, Montreal, who called to see him yesterday, like his other medical advisers, has no hope of his recovery, and he thinks that while he may live for two or three days at most, it is more likely that he will not live that long. He passed the night in a somnolent condition, taking a little nourishment at intervals. From all parts of the Dominion Lady Macdonald is in receipt of sympathy, and hope is expressed that his life may be spared. It may be mentioned that no visitors go beyond the gates of Earnscliffe, but gaze at the bulletins or learn anything from the gatekeeper he may choose to tell them. None but his attendants get near him. Lord Stanley calls daily.

A VALUABLE DISCOVERY.

A Gas that Will Preserve Fruit Naturally For Months

SAN FRANCISCO, June 5.—In an interview, A. T. Hatch, the well-known fruit grower, said: "Experiments are now in progress in this city which, if they prove as successful as they promise to do, will give fruit industry a boom such as it has never known. A local chemist who has been experimenting for a long time, has hit upon a gas which, it is claimed, will preserve fruit in its natural state for an indefinite period of time, at the same time preserving both the appearance and flavor of the fruit just as it comes from the tree. A short time ago I was shown a sample of cherries that had been preserved in this way for six months, and they were in a state of preservation in every way, even an expert could not have detected that they were not fresh from the orchard. Other experiments are now in progress, and a number of fruit growers, myself among the rest, have advanced money to carry them on. The gas is easy to manufacture, and costs little or nothing, and no difficulty is experienced in handling it.

BONE EXFOLIATION.

A Remarkable Case Reported by a Tennessee Doctor.

ASHEVILLE, N. C., June 5.—Mrs. Sarah Ness, who lives near Caney Branch, Tenn., affords a strange case of bone exfoliation. Dr. Bates, of Caney Branch, explained the woman's peculiar disease at a recent meeting of the North Carolina Medical Association, in this city. He brought a small satchel of bones with which to substantiate his assertions. In this case of bone exfoliation, he says one side of the woman's body only is affected. She is 71 years old, of average height and weighs 120 pounds. Except the disease mentioned, she is in good health. About 21 years ago she scorched the end of the index finger on her left hand and on the same evening cut the same finger on a piece of China. The night following, the wound gave great pain, so much that she walked the floor all night. The following morning the finger was very much swollen, and the cuticle protruded from the end of the finger. This was cut off with scissors. The operation left exposed three yellow pimples which contained all the pus that ever gathered in the finger. She suffered incessant pain for two months, at which time exfoliation began. It first commenced in the philanges of the fingers and as the disease progressed the forearm became involved, first phalanges, then metacarpus, carpius, radius, ulna, and of recent year scapula and inferur maxillary have been involved. About ten minutes before exfoliation takes place, the patient is seized with intense pain, which continues until the bone is expelled. On one occasion the doctor was called to see her, and on his arrival he found a bone in her throat. He removed it, and was told that she had swallowed two bones previous to his arrival. While sitting and talking, a bone about one inch long came from her left ear. The number of bones expelled in pieces, up to the present time is 526. The patient has been a woman of good constitution, otherwise, and during her life has taken very little mercury.

M'GREEVY THE BOODLER.

Special to the TIMES.]

OTTAWA, June 5.—Another batch of documents, letters, etc., was put in and sworn to by Deputy of the Public Works, before the Privileges and Election Committee, regarding the Esquimalt dock contract. J. E. Murphy, member of the firm of Larkin, Connolly & Co., appeared before the committee and produced a statement, signed by the members of the firm, agreeing to take in Robert McGreevy as a member of the firm, and to pay him thirty per cent. of the contract. This, he said was done with the knowledge and consent of Thos. McGreevy, whose influence it was to secure with the Department of Public Works. He produced a statement of the bookkeeper, Martin Connolly, showing that $25,000 had been paid to Thos. McGreevy. This was in the expense account, opposite the item of $25,000; there was no name. He also identified the auditor's audit of the books of the firm, and said that an amount of over $28,000 was not included in the item of $25,000 to Thos. McGreevy.

OTTAWA, June 5.—In the supplementary estimates British Columbia is not entirely forgotten, although very nearly so. Among the items are $500 to enable the Department to rebuild the schoolhouse at Gilladamicks Indian reserve on the Northwest coast, destroyed by fire last year; $587 toward the erection and furnishing of a schoolhouse under the auspices of the Church of England mission, on the Nanaimo Indian reserve; $1000 to enable the department to construct a stable for the Kootenay Indian Industrial School, and to purchase horses, etc.; expenses re the Burrard Inlet survey, $2500.

In the House this afternoon Sir John Thompson moved that Michael Connelly be summoned to the bar of the House on Monday at 4 o'clock to answer for his conduct in refusing his books, papers, etc., to the Privilege and Election Committee.

An Interesting Decision.

WASHINGTON, June 5.—An important decision was rendered yesterday by Judge L. S. O'Neil, in the case of the compositors in the employ of N. W. Darly, who walked out last Monday, and entered a suit for the amount due them for work on that day. The defence did not dispute the correctness of the bills, but maintained that the amounts were not payable until regular pay day, Saturday, and contended that the manner in which the men went out should not be sanctioned. The justice, in giving judgment in each case with costs, said he did not consider it was a question of unionism; it was conceded, he said, that the bills were correct, and that it would be a hardship to compel the men to remain here out of work waiting for their pay, when they desired to leave and seek work elsewhere.

Flood at Fresno.

FRESNO, Cala., June 5.—The Canal Company has not yet succeeded in stopping the break in the levee on the canal, which occurred in the suburbs of Fresno yesterday. The water has inundated the north-eastern portion of the city, and is coming in on several streets. The street car track on Blackstone avenue is washed out in several places, and people are shut in their houses and school children have difficulty in getting home. The water in the suburbs in many places is from four to six feet deep. Much alarm is felt lest the water comes into the business center, where the damage would be enormously large.

Frederick Douglass to be Recalled.

NEW YORK, June 4.—The Tribune's Washington correspondent says it is reported that the authorities have formed an impression that Minister Douglass did not fulfil the expectations of the Government in the negotiations for the coaling station at Samana Bay, Island of San Domingo, which had been intrusted to him, and that he will return home in a short time and be granted an opportunity to give an account of his stewardship. By some it is asserted he will arrive here within the present month, and that he may never return to Hayti in an official capacity.

Boycott on Dunsmuir Coal

SAN FRANCISCO, June 3.—The Dunsmuirs are having some trouble in disposing of their coal. The strike in the Wellington mines is practically over, and they can produce as much coal as ever in the history of the mine. The federated trades have taken a hand in the fight in this city, however, and are boycotting. All breweries have ceased using it, and many of the dealers will not handle it. In consequence the Dunsmuir yard is piled with coal. The steamer Wellington is discharging into the yard and very little of the coal is being carried away.

A Social Sensation.

BOSTON, June 5.—Miss Helen Frances Smith, whose peculiar marriage relations with Harry Winch, created such a scandal in West Roxbury, last winter, was married to John Morrill, her father's London agent, last Tuesday. The Rev. N. G. Clark and his wife were the only guests outside the immediate family. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. C. A. Beckwith, pastor of the West Roxbury Congregationalist Church. The newly married pair have gone to London to reside for the present.

CAUSES A SENSATION.

THE ITATA AFFAIR BEING DISCUSSED IN LONDON.

LONDON, June 5.—The reported surrender of the Itata to the American authorities has created a sensation here, second only to the baccarat scandal. The opponents of President Balmaceda, and that includes Col. North and other nitrate magnates, are deeply chagrined. The friends of the Chilian executive are correspondingly elated. At the Chilian consulate to-day, there was great rejoicing. Secretary Orego said there was no doubt that the loss of the Itata would seriously cripple the rebellion and hasten its overthrow, which, however was certain before long. Senor Orego said the United States had given a grand example to the world of the energetic enforcement of its laws against an attempt against the peace of a friendly nation, and that the conduct of the American government could not fail to command the respect of both Europe and America. The Senor added that according to the latest advices from Chili, the rebellion was likely to collapse without much effort on the part of the Chilian government. The people of the provinces held by the rebels were in a state of the greatest discontent, and an outbreak might be looked for at any time.

BOYCOTTING RUSSIAN SECURITIES.

A Berlin dispatch says the Hebrew bankers in that city have given notice to their agents and customers that Russian securities will no longer be dealt in by them, and that orders for such securities will not be filled. It is said that similar action has been taken at Vienna and Frankfort, and that in London an identical movement is under consideration. As to the effect upon Russia opinion is divided. The Czar's government is amply supplied with funds and has given up the idea at present of converting the loans which it was proposed to redeem with the aid of the Rothschilds.

REMAINS FOUND.

The discovery of a box supposed to contain the remains of the unfortunate John Reinold Paktul is reported from Kalioz, Poland. The bones are said to have been found in a lumber room in the citadel where they had laid many years. The citadel was formerly a palace, and the box is supposed to have been left there by a former ruler of Poland. The box had on it the letters "J. R. P." Paktul, it may be remembered, was put to death by Charles XI., of Sweden, on a charge of treason. He was a Russian ambassador, but Charles claimed him as a subject. The discovery, if authentic, is interesting.

STRIKERS RETURNING TO WORK.

A Vienna dispatch says that the German operatives on strike at Girardort, Poland, have gone back to work, the firm which employs them having yielded to their demands. Several socialists arrested in connection with the strike, are held as prisoners by the Russian police. The miners who were shut out in Westphalia after going on strike, have nearly all drifted back, the employers finding that they could not do without the skilled labor of their former men. It is also said that the Government gave a hint favorable to the exercise of leniency.

A FAILING MARKET.

The British consul general at Hamburg reports that the time is not far off when that place will be lost to the British coal industry. The English coal producers now send about £1,500,000 worth of coal to Hamburg.

THE PARIS MINISTER.

It is again rumored that Count Waldersee will succeed Count Munster as German ambassador to Paris. Count Munster has never been exactly liked either at Paris or Berlin since the visit of the Empress Frederick.

The Baccarat Gamblers.

LONDON, June 5.—In the baccarat case, Mrs. Lycett Green, wife of Mr. Lycett Green, Yorkshire (master of the hounds), was again called to the witness box and cross-examined. The examination of the lady yesterday, interrupted by the adjournment, was resumed by Sir Edward Clarke. The witness, who was fully as self-possessed as she had shown herself to be during the ordeal of yesterday, was in the cross-examination taken over the old ground of the arrangement of the table, the disposition of the guests and the discovery of cheating by Sir William Gordon-Cummings. At the conclusion of Sir Chas. Russell's address the court adjourned until Monday.

Ellen Terry Ill.

A Liverpool Failure.

LIVERPOOL, June 5.—The failure of Geo. James Brookes is announced; liabilities £121,000.

Down With Smallpox.

SACRAMENTO, June 5.—Mrs. W. F. Mack, a member of the "Fakir" Theatrical Co., was stricken down with smallpox at Golden Eagle hotel to-day. She was removed to the pest house. There is much excitement, as it is feared that other cases will follow, as no care was taken at the hotel to prevent the spread of the disease.

A New Way to Suicide.

MOODEVILLE, Pa., Jun 5.—Dr. John Thompson, who lived near Linesville, in this county, on Wednesday tied his feet together with a rope, hitched to a tree, leaving plenty of slack, and then plunged headlong into a creek and was drowned. He had frequently threatened to suicide on account of ill-health.

Hard on the Students.

BOSTON, June 5.—Proprietor J. Reed Whipple, of Young's Hotel and the Parker House, has decided that no more large dinners of under-graduates of Harvard will be permitted in these hotels hereafter owing to the disturbance raised by the "Institute of 1770," at the Parker House last week.

The German Fleet.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 5. The German fleet of three corvettes, the Leipsic, Sophia and Alexandriene, under the command of Admiral Valois, which left Yokohama for this port on May 3, arrived here this morning. Fully 200 officers and 1800 men are on the vessels. The fleet is bound for Chilian waters, and will coal and provision here, and also take on board supplies to be transferred to the German warships now in South American waters.

General Schofield's Marriage.

CHICAGO, June 5.—The announcement has been made of the approaching marriage of General John M. Schofield, commander-in-chief of the United States army, to Miss Georgia Kilbourne, of Keokuk. The ceremony will take place June 18, at the bride's home. Over 400 cards will be sent out.

Students Fined.

BOSTON, June 5.—In the Cambridge Court this morning, 30 students of Harvard College were fined $65 each for having liquors stored in the rooms of the Alpa Delta Phi Club, of which they were members.

THAT NAVAL ENGAGEMENT.

The Navy Department at Washington do Not Credit the Report.

WASHINGTON, June 5.—The account which came from San Francisco yesterday of a naval engagement in Valparaiso harbor, is received with incredulity at the navy department. Such facts as are officially known seem to discredit the story. The engagement is reported to have taken place on April 28th, in the presence of foreign men-of-war. Admiral McCann was there on that date, on board the Baltimore, yet in the report to the department on the next day, he failed to mention any such event. In addition to this, department officers say they have no doubt, if an engagement with such pronounced results had taken place, the news would have been promptly telegraphed to the United States instead of taking the slower course of mail steamers.

NANAIMO NEWS.

The Assizes—The Electric Light Question—The Brewery Syndicate, Etc.

NANAIMO, June 5.—Little interest appears to be shown by the citizens as to what is transpiring in the court of assize at present. They justly feel that the case is too disgusting to be of interest to them and in consequence the hearers are mostly made up of jurymen of which there are quite a number. Mr. Walls for the crown, is evidently probing the cases to the bottom, while Mr. Gregory for the defence is fighting hard for his client (Mr. Paisley) and succeeded in bringing a verdict of "not guilty," on the second indictment; he has to come up on the third indictment to-day.

WILL RUN IN OPPOSITION.

At a special meeting of the City Council held on Wednesday night, it was decided to accept the advice of Messrs. Drake, Jackson & Helmcken, solicitors of Victoria, in reference to the Electric Light By-law. This means that another by-law is to be submitted to the ratepayers, so framed as to allow the city to enter into competition with the present one. Several of the aldermen present will decline to vote for the passing of such a by-law, and it is well-known that Mayor Hilbert is opposed to it so in all probability the bill will be defeated in its first reading.

THE BREWERY SYNDICATE.

Messrs. J. Mahrer and C. Pollexfen, who succeeded some few months ago in making arrangements to bond all the breweries in British Columbia and transfer them to an English syndicate, and for which they made a special trip to that country, returned yesterday. Mr. Mahrer states that everything is working as he desires, and that an expert is to be sent out from England to investigate the matter previous to the purchase of the breweries.

SPECIALS DISCHARGED.

Nearly all the special constables who have been employed at Wellington since the strike commenced were discharged yesterday, and in consequence were given a free passage out of the country. There are now only three remaining and no doubt they would also be delighted to leave, as their life must be monotonous. They have had a pretty easy time generally, and have signally failed to distinguish themselves in this part of the country, but it is possible they may be more successful in the place they have journied to.

LITTLE EVENTS.

Mr. W. A. Shaw, proprietor of the Electric Light Works, is having additional machinery put in.

The school examinations were completed to-day, and Mr. Anderson returned to the capital. There was a narrow escape of collision between the passenger train yesterday morning and one of the Wellington coal trains.

THE BACCARAT GAMBLERS

PUBLIC INTEREST IN THE SCANDAL UNABATED.

The Prince of Wales Still Present in Court—He Owned the "Chips" Used in the Game—English Aristocracy Shows that it is Made of Very Common Clay.

LONDON, June 4.—The Prince was in his seat promptly at the opening of the court, and appeared to be in excellent health; in fact, he may be said to be in the pink of condition, having a fine complexion and an alert manner.

Stanley Wilson was again called to the witness box, and his cross-examination was resumed by Sir Edward Clarke, who briefly held up the witness to various degrees of scorn for spying about a guest in his father's house; and for his tricky memory when it was necessary for him to establish his statements by going into detail. Sir Edward, in the course of his examination, drew out of young Wilson the indiscreet admission that the Prince of Wales owned the counters which were brought to Tranbycroft for use in the game. This unexpected disclosure caused no small sensation in court. Sir Edward Clarke bit his lips and hurried on, as if to efface the awkward impression made. Everybody cast a hasty glance at the Prince, and then ogled each other. The Prince was as composed as ever, and seemed to be unmoved by the incident and the attention it brought upon him.

Berkeley Levett, one of the baccarat party at Tranbycroft, next took the box. He is boyish, effeminate and fair, wore a light morning suit, and gave soft answers scarcely audible. The whole court, including the Prince of Wales, took a deep interest in his story, which he told in a quiet, straightforward manner. He refuted Gordon Cumming's account of what passed at the London interview between them; insisted on the fact that the door was locked, and intimated that plaintiff did the utmost in his power to persuade him to withdraw the accusation of cheating. Beyond this witness added little to what has already been made public, and in the main corroborated the testimony given by young Wilson. Clarke's cross-examination failed to shake him. Witness weighed his answers, and frequently replied to dangerous or difficult questions with "I don't know." His whole bearing suggested pain at opposing his superior officer and friend. Sir Edward was a trifle testy at not being able to make more of this young gentleman. The hearers were somewhat amused by Levett's description of the severity with which Mr. Arthur Wilson, owner of Tranbycroft, denounced the baccarat playing. This was evidently a revelation to the Prince of Wales, who was not used to hearing his methods criticized before his face. Similar slips have occurred in the course of the trial involving plain speech of Royalty, delighting the radicals and shocking the sycophants. It was easy to see the embarrassment of Sir Edward Clarke, who, in his cross-examination, endeavored to bring out evidence that the company at Tranbycroft imbibed freely at dinner, but did not dare to emphasize it, owing to the presence of His Royal Highness.

Lycett Green, another of the baccarat players, next entered the witness box. He had a clean shaven face, was manly and frank in demeanor, and with his arms folded most of the time, gave his testimony in quiet tones, and with a convincing manner.

Mr. Green proved to be the most hostile witness who has yet appeared, owing no doubt to the fact that he and Gordon-Cummings were unable to settle the matter last January. Mr. Gill, assistant counsel for the prosecution, conducted the cross examination. He made a thrust at Sir Charles Russell, who repeatedly stated that Green's father was in the House of Commons. He provoked the witness to proudly proclaim that his father's profession was that of master of the fox and hounds. This brought forth a gale of laughter from the court, which was again aroused later when Green called Lord Edward Somerset, who was present, "Lord Arthur," recalling memories of the Ross examination with zest and freshness, and somewhat rattled Mr. Green. Lord Coleridge was obliged to interfere to keep counsel within bounds, nevertheless witness was nervous in anticipation of the treatment he was to receive. When asked if he had lunched at the Doncaster races, he angrily replied, "He was not drunk." Gill retorted that the jury would probably see below the surface. Clarke and Gill take every occasion to tickle the vanity of the Prince of Wales and the gentlemen of the jury. Gill labored his utmost to provoke the witness and make him ridiculous, but he did not succeed in shaking his testimony. Sir Charles Russell frequently started to interrupt this unfair method of examination, when Gill's derisive tactics would be checked for the motive. The skilful fencing by the lawyers was keenly enjoyed by the spectators.

Mrs. Lycett Green, daughter of Arthur Wilson, and wife of the last witness, was called to the box. She is of fair complexion and rather pretty, and she answered firmly to the questions asked her, telling the same story as her companions. She asserted that Gordon Cumming taught her what she knew of the baccarat game.

Here the court adjourned until to-morrow. The trial will probably end on Saturday.

ABOUT NELSON.

Encouraging Mining News from the Kootenay Country—Railway Enterprises.

From the Miner, May 30.]

The last spike was driven in the Columbia and Kootenay railway at Nelson on Thursday during a rainstorm.

A month ago all the matrons and maids in Nelson could be counted on the fingers of one's hand, now they number half a hundred.

The party of Canadian Pacific engineers who were ordered to make an exploration trip from Bear Creek station on the main line to the head of Kootenay Lake, passed through Nelson this week, on their way to report to the chief engineer at Vancouver.

The trial run at the Poorman mill of ore from the Royal Canadian resulted in a surprise to the people who have all along claimed that the ore from that property was too low grade to be a working proposition. While the figures are not positively stated to outsiders, they are placed at $27.50 free gold per ton.

Real estate sales during the week comprised several acre lots in the Hume addition and business lots in Nelson. H. Selous has the handling of the acre lots and reports 32 sold of the 41 placed on the market. A. S. Farwell sold a 30-foot lot on the corner of East Baker and Josephine streets for $1500, and John McLeod a 30-foot (lot 6, block 12) on West Baker street at the same figure. James Fox sold a 50-foot on West Vernon street at $1250 and Mrs. Colwell 25 feet frontage on East Vernon at $950. About a dozen new buildings were commenced during the week.

Provided the Dominion Government does not disallow the bill granting a charter to the Nelson and Fort Sheppard railway, engineers will be in the field making preliminary surveys within 60 days. The distance from Nelson to Fort Sheppard is 66 miles, and the estimated cost of the surveys is $15,000. The promoters of the company have asked the Provincial Government for right-of-way and grounds for terminal facilities at Nelson. It is understood that the right-of-way has already been granted, and that the grounds for terminal facilities will be.

Charles Westly Busk, of Balfour, writes under date of May 26th: "The first pole of the Kootenay Lake telephone line was planted to-day with appropriate ceremonies at a point about 80 feet west of my house. W. J. Sauders has received notification of his appointment as postmaster at Balfour. As soon as the necessary swearing has been done, and the papers are sent to Victoria, we shall have a postoffice in full swing. A very promising quartz claim—a new find—was recorded to-day. It is located less than a mile distant from Balfour, Messrs. McBain and Jackson being the discoverers."

Now that the snow has disappeared, mining operations are about to be resumed in earnest in the Hot Springs district. Ten men are at work stopping ore on the Number One, and a force will be placed on the Skyline on Monday, Scott McDonald, superintendent for the McCune Company, arriving on the ground to-day. Mr. McDonald brought part of the working force with him, and expects to be able to run the crosscut to the Skyline ledge with the machinery on the ground. Considerable prospecting is being done and a number of good finds are reported. A few sales have also been made.

The building of the Whitewater Mining Company's mill will be completed by Tuesday of next week, and is pronounced a first class structure of the kind. The machinery for the mill was placed on the cars at Nelson and run down this afternoon to the Whitewater Company's platform, opposite Ward's crossing. It will be packed thence to the mill-site by Wilson & Perdue's train. The mine is said to be looking well, and Mr. Goepel of Victoria, who is an owner in the property, says he hopes to see the Whitewater sending out gold bullion within 60 days. The company have put in a platform and chute opposite Ward's hotel, and have acquired that property along with the ferry from the Wards.

Wedding Bells.

The marriage of Mr. A. E. Rand, of Vancouver, to Miss Gussie DeBeck, which has been looked forward to with a great deal of interest for some time, took place this morning, says the Columbian. The bride, who is the youngest daughter of Mr. Howard L. DeBeck, is a young lady well known and highly esteemed in a high circle of Westminster society. The groom, as a prominent business man, is well and popularly known by nearly everybody in the city. The wedding took place at the residence of the bride's father, and was witnessed by a large number of invited guests. Rev. S. J. Thompson performed the ceremony. Miss Georgia DeBeck and Miss Laura Clark acted as bridesmaids, and Mr. T. M. Cunningham supported the groom through the trying ordeal. The bride was given away by her father. Mr. and Mrs. Rand left by the 10 o'clock train for their honeymoon trip, which will extend across the mountains and occupy two months. They were given a hearty "send off" by the crowd of friends who gathered at the depot to see them depart.

Mr. Farquhar, of this city, and Miss Cormack, of New Westminster, were married in the latter city on Wednesday.

THE CRY OF MILLIONS
OH, MY BACK!
STOP IT NOW.
SOON IT WILL BE TOO LATE.

I have been troubled many years with disease of the kidneys and have tried many different remedies and have sought aid from different physicians without relief. About the 15th of April I was suffering from a very violent attack that almost prostrated me in such a manner that I was bent over. When I sat down it was almost impossible for me to get up alone, or to put on my clothes, when glad Providence sent Dr. Henley, with the OREGON KIDNEY TEA, to my hotel. I immediately commenced using the tea. It had an almost miraculous effect, and to the astonishment of all the guests at the hotel, in a few days, I am happy to state, that I was a new man. I will recommend the tea to all afflicted as I have been.

WHITE ROCK, B. C.

This Townsite is situated on Semiahmoo Bay, and is the only deep water seaport between the International Bounday Line and Vancouver, B.C. It will probably be the Mainland starting-point of the Victoria, Saanich & New Westminster Railway. It is now the outlet for the finest agricultural district in British Columbia.

The C.P.R. has made a survey of a line from Vancouver direct to this point. The Royal City Planing Mills Company has built a substantial wharf here, and has established a lumber yard, which supplies the farmers of this district. A handsome Hotel has been erected and building is going on rapidly. Several influential and far-sighted orporations have acquired large tracts of land surrounding this Townsite.

GILMORE AND McCANDLESS CLOTHIERS & HATTERS

SUITS TO ORDER
CHEAPER THAN EVER.

Since the formation of a union amongst the tailors in Victoria prices for clothing have advanced to such an extent that people are sending East for their suits. And we don't blame them, either, if they can save from $10 to $20 a suit. We pay union prices simply because we have to; not that we consider it right.

We were paying our men the same wages before union prices were enforced that we paid them ten years ago, when we received from ten to twenty per cent. more for our suits.

We have from ten to fifteen thousand dollars invested in tailoring, and we propose to turn it over at least twice a year, regardless of profits. To do this we will make suits cheaper than we did before we paid high prices for making up. Good Tweed and Serge Suits, $25.

Irish Tweeds, $27, $28, $30 and $32. If any other tailor in town will prove that these goods are not genuine Irish Tweeds we will donate a Thousand Dollars to any charitable institution that he may name.

Black worsted suits $40. You will get the same goods for $48 or $50 elsewhere. We intend to make a specialty of tweed suits for $30; regular price is $35 to $40. We have the store for our other business; it costs us nothing for the tailoring department; we have the stock; we have a first-class cutter, and we have capital enough to run it if we don't make a cent. So now is the time to get cheap suits to order.

We are going through the stock marking everything down. Don't take everything for granted. See our new schedule of prices.

THE AGRICULTURAL SOCIETY GRANT.

The British Columbia Agricultural Society has asked the city to donate $25,000 for the purpose of erecting exhibition buildings. There seems to be no reason why the city should not see its way clear to assist the society in the amount named. British Columbia is not, strictly speaking, an agricultural country, but that is all the more reason for an agricultural society. Where the conditions are favorable agriculture develops itself. It is where they are unfavorable that an organized movement is necessary, and the only form it can take is that of an agricultural society. When we say that the conditions are unfavorable to agriculture in this Province, we mean in a comparative sense. The climate of British Columbia is favorable to agriculture and horticulture. It is only in the sense that the area of farming land is disproportionately small to grazing and other lands that British Columbia ranks so low agriculturally. But small as the area of farming land is compared with the total area of the Province not more than a tenth part is under cultivation. Agriculture in fact in British Columbia is still in its infancy. Now we want to improve on this state of affairs. We want to do away with the importing of so much stuff that can be raised in the Province as well as not, and we want to increase our population. Let us, then, not only have an agricultural society in name, but an agricultural society in fact, a large and active organization, and get rid of the political agriculturists who have too many axes to grind. Twenty-five thousand dollars is a very modest sum to put into agricultural buildings everything considered. The increased stimulus to farming and fruit raising that would inure of a society in a position to invite exhibits, together with the annual fair which always attracts many people from a distance, will more than repay the outlay. Let the by-law pass. The present exhibition buildings are wholly inadequate. Without the proper buildings it is not worth while to hold a fair, and without the fair the society's usefulness is gone.

STATE OF IRELAND.

According to the London Financial Times, there has been a marked improvement in the general condition of trade in Ireland, banking and industrial returns furnishing decided evidences of prosperity. There are ten steamship companies with headquarters in Ireland, with an aggregate paid-up capital of about $9,300,000, which have an average yield to investors of 5.2 per cent. per annum, and the shares of eight of them are selling at a decided premium. The shipping trade is expected to be still more profitable when contemplated harbor and railroad extensions are made. The linen industry in the North also continues to be a paying one, and, as a result of these evidences of general progress and prosperity English capital—always a good sign—is each year seeking increased investment in the sister country.

Nevertheless there has been a decrease in the population of Ireland since the last census of 468,674. The recent census of Ireland shows a population of 4,706,162, 2,317,076 of which were males. This result has caused surprise, inasmuch as above observed the condition of the country is in many respects improved. The last is the first census in this century that has shown the population of Ireland below the 5,000,000 mark. In 1801 the population was 5,395,456. It was thought that the Home Rule movement had diminished the tide of immigration, but such has not been the case. The fact is, the Irish have the "western fever" and except a boom should set in are bound to act on HORACE GREELY'S advice.

LAND OWNERS.

Col. BOB INGERSOLL does not believe in "single tax," but he has a hobby in relation to land that will not displease the disciples of HENRY GEORGE. Said INGERSOLL in a recent speech at a banquet in Helena, Montana:

"My hobby is that land will be the most prosperous that has the most land owners on it. * * * * * I am in favor of exempting a home of a certain value, all homes, from every kind of taxation, as well as from forced sale for any reason whatever. Say what you please, the home is the unit of good government. If you want to build a railroad, the law is so that that railroad can condemn the land necessary for its construction. Now I want the law so in every State of this Union that if any man or corporation owns above a certain amount of land, that certain amount of land is to be fixed in each State according to what is done with that land; that if any person or corporation owns more than a certain amount of land and won't sell it, that you can condemn it for a home exactly as you would for a railroad, and let twelve men pass upon the value and let the man that wants the home pay what it is worth and take it."

The Colonel does not believe in robbing a man because he has more land than he ought to have, but he believes in saying to that man in the event of his refusing to sell, "go into court and fix the price because we do not want a nation of tenants; we want a nation of home owners."

"It is hard to get a man to shoulder a musket for a boarding-house. Very few men are willing to fight for a landlord; they had rather fight the landlord."

INGERSOLL is right, and yet experience, except in the case of the Irish, does not bear him out. Englishmen and Scotchmen could not have shouldered the musket more willingly though England had been owned by the people. It all depends upon how a man has been brought up. Nevertheless, the idea of "homes" is growing, and in proportion that it takes form the homeless will query with increased earnestness when the dogs of war are loosed, "For what and for whom are we fighting?"

EDITORIAL NOTES.

The Oregonian, speaking of Sir JOHN MACDONALD, says:

"He was a very large, sagacious and wise man, whose talents would have lifted him to the first rank of statesmen in either England or the United States. He leaves no man behind him worthy to wear his mantle in either of the great parties of Canada, and least of all in his own. The Liberal Opposition contains to-day the best brains in Canada, and with the death of Sir John Macdonald it is quite likely to return to power at the next election, as the last victory of the Conservatives was purely a personal triumph won by the great leader who is dying, if not dead to-day."

As to the consequences of Sir JOHN'S death the Oregonian is not far astray. He leaves no successor in his own party, while it is undoubtedly true that "the last victory of the Conservatives was a purely personal triumph."

Within recent memory, Mr. FOSTER, as the apostle of temperance reform, declared that Canada could get along without the revenue derived from intoxicants. These were his words:

"What is the voice of economic science with regard to this liquor traffic?" and he answered his own question by saying that the voice of economic science declared that the maximum of prosperity in a country was to be reached (1) by the frugal and proper use of all its material resources; (2) by the wise conservation and employment of its labor power; (3) by the prudent and useful expenditure of the earnings of its labor; (4) by having the minimum of non-producing and dangerous criminal elements. 'I state unhesitatingly,' he said, 'and I challenge contradiction anywhere, that the liquor traffic antagonises every one of these simple canons of economic truth.'"

To what must we attribute this radical change in the Minister? Is it that then he was a prohibitionist from policy, and that he is now the converse for the same reason? Such men as FOSTER make the prohibitionists laughing stock for fools. Mr. FOSTER is a many sided man. It would be interesting to hear from him on the divorce question.

An Italian paper declares that one trouble in this country (the United States) is that "we have not enough naturalized citizens who have not forgotten their native land. If we had we would not see so many lamentable occurrences, and the newspapers would not be covered over as they are with effusions calculated to make the heart bleed with mortification and grief and indignation." The United States Government does not demand of the naturalized citizen forgetfulness of home, but it ought to and does demand his first allegiance to itself. The man, who, by virtue of acquired citizenship, claims the protection of this Government, owes his first thought and allegiance here. If he cannot give these, forgetting, in that sense, the land of his birth, then he should be reminded that the route to "his own, his native land," lies right back by the way he came here. This is about the size of it. And the time is not far distant in the United States when Americans will cease to allow the flags of foreign tyrannies to be flaunted in their faces by galvanized citizens of the Republic.

Telegram: It is stated that Phil Armour, Potter Palmer, and some other wealthy men of Chicago propose to purchase the Colosseum at Rome, move it to Chicago, and set it up there just as it stands, as a World's Fair attraction. The estimated cost of the undertaking is set down at $40,000,000. It is hardly possible to believe that sane men could make such a proposal. If it has been made it is only an evidence of the incurable vulgarity and ignorance of the men who make it. Mr. Armour and his friends, if they did such a thing, would only prove in doing it that they were a lot of wealthy vandals, devoid of taste and refinement.

Our contemporary further asks why it is that the Americans "can not do something original, something that will mark the age and country?" While conceding that there is something very unsentimental and even vulgar in the proposition of Messrs. ARMOUR & Co., did it not occur to the writer of the above that the Chicago speculators might be, privately, of the same opinion but were being moved in the matter by the prospect of gain and the sensationalism of the thing? As a money making proposition the transference of the Colosseum from Rome to Chicago would scarcely pay. The interest on $40,000,000 at 4 per cent would be $1,600,000 per annum and it is not to be supposed that the transplanted Colosseum would attract sightseers to the extent that would produce a revenue in this amount. It may be supposed, therefore, that Messrs. ARMOUR & Co. have never seriously contemplated so wild an investment. Parvenues, vulgar as they may be, they are no fools. Possibly the gentlemen in question, panting as it were for novelty, discussed the proposition of the purchase of the Colosseum incidentally, while on some flightly reporter must lie the responsibility of giving the proposition circulation as having been entertained seriously. The Telegram's criticism is that of a man who is unable to see that while the Americans have a sentimental interest in the Chicago Fair, they propose to make it unique and at the same time a paying investment. Esthetics are all very fine, but a plethoric pocketbook is a good deal finer. Indeed, nobody can afford to be esthetic who is not rich. Wealth is the condition precedent.

New Telegraph Offices.

A telegraph office was opened at Langley Landing yesterday, James M. Drummond, agent for the H. B. Co., in charge. An office will be opened at Aldergrove in a few days.

To Join the Fleet.

Lieut. Boyer and a party of blue-jackets, will go south on the steamer City of Puebla next Sunday. They are bound for South America where they will join the British fleet.

Will Rejoin His Party.

A. L. Poudrier, D.L.S. who had to leave his survey party and return home on account of illness is very much better. He will leave here about the 15th inst., to rejoin his party on the Skeena river.

Has Been Remanded.

Bermudiz, the man who is charged with robbing James Meldram's residence, was to have come up in the Speedy Trials court this morning, but on account of some technicality it has been remanded until a day to be fixed.

Sewerage Connections.

Ald. Hunter will introduce a by-law at the next meeting of the council to makes rules for connecting house drains with the sewers. The object is to have all connections possible made during the construction of the sewerage system.

On the 26th of this Month

Russell, McDonald & Co.'s fourteenth regular half yearly drawing takes place. The usual sum of fifteen hundred dollars divided into twenty prizes will be distributed to the lucky winners. Tickets can be obtained until the hour for drawing.

Votes of Thanks.

At a meeting of St. James' congregation a resolution was passed thanking Rev. S. C. Schofield for the manner in which he filled the position of pastor during Archdeacon Scriven's absence. Mr. Mallandaine was also thanked for gratuitously acting as architect for the new Sunday school.

A "Social Session."

A "Social Session" as presented at the Victoria last evening was well received by an appreciative audience. The music deserves special attention the Black Hussar band being as good in the orchestra as they are on the street. All through the play was good. It will be repeated this evening.

Police Court.

There were only two cases in the police court this morning which were quickly disposed of. Joseph Eldridge pleaded guilty to a charge of petty larceny and was given three months to think over it in jail. The other case was for infraction of the street by law, by shooting inside the city limits; dismissed with costs.

Will be Busy for Some Time.

The Esquimalt dry dock will be kept busy from to-morrow night for some months to come. The Premier will be docked to-morrow night, and as soon as she comes out the City of Seattle will go in. The steamer Danube will follow her, and remain until the Warspite arrives. She will undoubtedly be in for several months.

New Buildings.

Mr. M. Hart is erecting two very fine two story buildings, one on Herald street and the other facing on Fisgard. They are both now well up and present quite a handsome appearance.

Another new building to be erected on Fisgard street is for Ah Wing. It will have a frontage of 70 feet by 150 feet deep and be three stories high, built of brick with stone finishings.

Cleanliness Next to Godliness.

The supreme thing in a house after a good kitchen and a good cook, is a good, well lighted bath-room, with a large, roomy bath. Porcelain baths are becoming very popular just now, and the solid handsome ones manufactured by Twyford in England, and imported only by Braden & Stamford, Fort street, are the best article. Quite a number have found their way into the fine new homes now being built.

The Parthia's Captain Flattered.

Shortly before the Parthia sailed from Vancouver on Wednesday afternoon a number of the leading citizens of the Terminal City assembled in the smoking room of that steamship and presented Capt. Panton with an address and a handsome diamond scarf pin as a token of the esteem in which he is held by those who have become acquainted with him during his visits to Vancouver. Mayor Oppenheimer read the address.

Garden Parties.

The season for the ever pleasant garden parties is just about commencing and the pretty lawns of Victoria, having now put on their best appearance, will be brought into use. On Tuesday next Mrs. Dunsmuir will entertain her friends in her large gardens surrounding the Dunsmuir castle. Mr. Pferdner's band has been engaged for the occasion.

Mrs. B. Van Volkenburg, of Johnson street, has also issued invitations for the same afternoon.

The Deficiency.

Treasurer Kent says that there is still a deficiency of between three and four hundred dollars in the funds for the payment of the celebration expenses. An intimation to this effect in these columns a few days ago brought several responses, and thirty or forty dollars were contributed by a few generous citizens. Mr. Kent thinks that the entire sum wanted should be voluntarily subscribed, and as he is anxious to close up the whole business at once, donations will be all the more acceptable if received quickly. Among the donations are W. W. Northcote, $5; W. Partridge, $2.50; R. Norris, $2 and Robt. Irving of Moss street, $25.

Ground for Complaint.

"At the head of Fort street, resides a pack of worthless curs which nightly gives a concert for the benefit of the people living in that neighborhood. Their bark is on the C. and the yelling, howling and fighting during midnight hours is past endurance. It is a nuisance and a change for the better would be gladly accepted. Wonder if these dogs have paid their taxes; if so they have got a right to bark." This is the complaint of a prominent gentleman of the neighborhood, who, judging by the remarks of others who live on Fort street, has good grounds for complaint.

Laying the Pipes.

Sewerage pipes have been laid along Cook street, between Parkington and Franklin, and this afternoon the contractors commenced laying them along Humboldt street. They will be laid in the open cuts first and the tunnels afterwards.

Another New City.

The new townsite of North Saanich will shortly be advertised for sale in lots. A surveying party leave for the place on Monday morning, and after their work has been completed another metropolis of the Pacific coast will be in existence.

The Bridge Closed.

A notice in another column declares James Bay bridge closed until further notice. It is not known what will be done with the street cars during the time it is closed, but as the company have not been notified, no doubt the cars will run as usual.

Work Progessing.

Work is progressing favorably on the drive over Mt. Tolmie. A large gang of men are at work, and it is expected that carriages will be able to drive to the top by the 1st of July. There is a splendid view from the top of the mountain and no doubt it will soon become a popular drive.

Not His Fault.

A gentleman who arrived from the Sound last evening unintentionally got the best of the customs officers and the railway company. He had two dogs in a box which were liable for a freight and a duty bill. The gentleman picked the box up and took it off no doubt not being aware that there were charges to pay on it.

From Alaska.

The steamer Mexico arrived from Alaska at noon to day in charge of Pilot George. She brought a consignment of furs but no passengers for this port. After discharging she left for the Sound. She had no news of interest from the north beyond the fact that the weather is fine and the canneries have started work.

Young Men's Institute.

Seghers Council, No. 85, Y.M.I. of this city, will nominate officers for the ensuing year at their meeting next Monday evening.

The annual convention of the Y.M.I. will be held on Sept. 6th next at Monteray, California. The Victoria Institute will send two delegates.

A grand re-union of the members of the Y.M.I. of the Northwest will be held at Seattle, July 4th.

Athletic Club Notes.

The V.A.C. band which now numbers 15 pieces will hold its second practice in the club rooms this evening. The boys are improving wonderfully and will soon be able to play in public.

The baths at the V.A.C. are nearly completed and will be a great convenience. They will be supplied with hot and cold water pipes.

A general meeting of the club will be held on Monday evening to make arrangements for the annual picnic.

May Give Evidence.

Mr. E. Crow Baker will be in England for about four months. It is possible that he may go to Ottawa on his way to England, and give evidence in the Tarte-McGreevy investigation. It will be remembered that Mr. Mike Connolly described Messrs. Baker and Shakespeare as a "brace of pirates," and it is to be assumed that Mr. Baker will be anxious to appear before the committee to answer—in his own emphatic way—the "jocular remark" of Mr. Connolly. It was reported at Ottawa that both of our ex-representatives would be summoned to give evidence.

Narrow Escape.

What came near being a fatal accident occurred at the building being erected for Mr. Pierie on Douglas street this morning. The horse which was being used for drawing lumber and brick to the top story, by means of a pulley, became frightened at something and began to shy, and the driver, George Hick, in attempting to hold the animal by the bridal, stumbled and fell under his feet. The horse stepped on the young man's body, hurting him severely, and cutting one of his thighs badly. However, no bones were broken and Hick will be around again in a few days.

Undesirable Population.

Sheriff Woolery's declaration a few days ago to the effect that 50 Japanese women were being imported to Seattle direct from Japan, and that the slave owners were intending to place them in Whitechapel, is having verified, says the Telegraph. Fifteen of this number arrived Monday night and were smuggled into the Whitechapel district. They were brought down from British Columbia over the Lake Shore and Northern lines and landed at Fremont. About midnight they were seen stealing along Third street from Pike and finally made their way into the Whitechapel district.

New Hose Cart.

The last relic of by-gone days, the hand hose cart, has been taken out of the fire halls and sent to the James Bay engine house. A new hose cart from the works of the Toronto Gutta Percha and Rubber Company arrived last night and will be used by No. 2 Company, Yates street. The hose cart is the first of its kind in the province and is a credit to the city as well as a good advertisement for the manufacturers. The cart will carry 800 feet of fire hose and six men, is handsomely painted, and works with chain gearing. Everything connected with the new piece of apparatus is first-class and several new and novel inventions can be seen on this new fire-fighting machine.

Slaughtering Fish.

Officer McNeil, of the provincial police, who takes a great deal of interest in the fish industry around the city, has been examining the large amount of halibut that comes in here daily. Several tons has arrived this week and among the whole lot Officer McNeil says very few were caught by hooks. He is of opinion that the Indians are using dynamite on the halibut banks, thus slaughtering fish by the ton. Powder has also been used in the streams of the Island at Saanich, particularly whence an express wagon full of trout were brought a few days ago. The provincial authorities have nothing to do with the fisheries, and it was time the Dominion Government took steps to have a stop put to this wholesale slaughter.

A New Idea.

Mr. S. M. Okell, who recently came to Victoria from Manchester, England, is the originator of a new process for packing salmon in glass jars, which he is sanguine will be very popular with a numerous class in the old country, who are disposed to look upon tins of salmon with suspicion. The jar is hermetically sealed by the pressure of the cover, which screws on against a rubber band. Mr Okell put up a number of jars several months ago, and to test the experiment he yesterday invited a number of citizens to the office of Morrow, Holland & Co., to open the jars and inspect the contents. There were present, H. C. Beeton, agent for B. C. in Great Britain, Mayor Grant, President Ker, of the Agricultural Society, and other prominent citizens. On opening the jars the contents were found to be in a perfect state of preservation, and the general opinion was that the glass "can" would be received with favor. Mr Okell will this summer put up a quantity of salmon in these jars for the English market, and has hopes that he will thereby create a demand that will lead to the establishment of another branch of the salmon industry in British Columbia.

The Grave Found.

Many of the first residents of Victoria will remember John Wesley Dissette, one of those bright, active and intelligent young men, who came to British Columbia in the early days, and who for a time was connected with the Chronicle, of this city, and subsequently became a gold seeker in several parts of the province. Mr. Dissette, while in charge of the government telegraph office, on San Juan Island, died in 1868 of apoplexy. His body was interred in the old cemetery, but the grave was almost a "nameless" one, for there was no stone to mark the spot. Mr. Dissette came from Bradford, Ont., but his brothers and other relatives had gone to the United States, and all of them had attained to prominet positions. Mr. E. Disette, secretary of the National Malleable Casting Co., of Indianapolis, has long been anxious to find his brother's grave and has been for many years in correspondence with Mr. Hugh O'Neill, of this city, who is an old timer and was a close companion of John W. Dissette. Mr. O'Neill has been making enquiries for the past seven years, and on Wednesday last, while engaged in his labor of love, was successful in obtaining the information wanted. Talking on the subject to Mrs. S. Duck, that lady excusing herself for a few moments, went to the house of Mrs. Jonathan Bullen, who remembered the interment well. The body of J. W. Dissette had been laid to rest alongside the grave of her daughter, and Mrs. Bullen fortunately, will be able to point out the little mound he has so long been searching for. The body will be exhumed and will be deposited in Ross Bay Cemetery, where no doubt loving relatives will erect a suitable monument to mark the spot.

ALL THE FACTS ABOUT CALLING OUT THE MILITIA.

The Provincial Government, Through the Attorney-General, Did It—The Correspondence Proves that the Government Deceived the House and the Country.

We lay all the correspondence, in the hands of the Militia Department at Ottawa, in regard to the insult offered to the people of Wellington last summer, when a military force was sent to that place to overawe peaceable miners, before the readers of the TIMES in this issue. It is in the public interest, and in the interest of all parties to the dispute as to where the responsibility rests for that usurpation of power, that all the facts should be known. The correspondence, which follows, was submitted to the House of Commons in reply to a motion made by Mr. D. Gordon, M.P., for the papers bearing upon the question. The matter was the subject of discussion during the late session of the British Columbia Legislature, and it will be remembered that the Government, including the Attorney-General, disclaimed responsibility. The correspondence—especially the carefully worded report of Lieut.-Colonel Holmes—proves that the members of the British Columbia Cabinet did worse than trifle with the truth. They deliberately deceived the House. Here is the evidence:

Department of Militia and Defence,
OTTAWA, May 20th, 1891.

Sir,—In returning to you the order of the House of Commons of the 11th inst., I have the honor to transmit copy of all correspondence and telegrams between the Department of Militia and Defence and the commandant of C Battery, relative to the sending of a detachment of men to Wellington on the 5th of August last, in aid of the civil authorities of that district; also copy of the requisition served on the said commanding officer by the magis rates; also copy of the report of the commanding officer on the same subject; also copy of the regulations for the Royal School of Military Instruction issued June, 1887; also copy of general order, 7th October, 1887; also copy of the regulations of the permanent corps, December, 1889.

The distance from the locality where the magistrates who signed the requisition reside and the site of the mines in the Wellington district is not accurately known in this department, but in a letter dated 28th August last and sent to the Under Secretary of State, Ottawa, signed by D. W. Gordon, Esq., M. P., the distance in question is stated to be eighty miles.

The department has not been put to any expenditure by the sending of the detachment herein alluded to.

I have the honor to be, sir,
Your obedient servant,
(Signed) C. EUG. PANET,
Colonel Deputy Minister of Militia and Defence.

NANAIMO, Aug. 25th, 1890.

My Dear Caron:—In further reference to my telegrams to you regarding the sending of Col. Holmes with a detachment of C Battery and a company of the local militia to Wellington, I may now inform you that the local Government disclaim having exercised any control in the matter, and their press are endeavoring by quotations from the B.N.A. Act that the Dominion Government alone control the militia, and leave it to be inferred by those who have not read the Militia Act that the Dominion Government alone are responsible for the outrage.

Both Governments denying their responsibility in the matter makes them both the subjects of ridicule and contempt. The question is asked and with emphasis, "Is it possible that a triumvirate of scoundrels living at a distance of eighty miles from a community of law-abiding citizens usurp the functions of the Dominion and Provincial Governments, the civil authorities of that community, composed of two stipendiary magistrates, sheriff and his officers, a half dozen or so of constables, fifteen or more justices of the peace, and send an armed force into their midst to overawe some miners who had seen fit in the exercise of their unquestionable rights to decline to work for a company except on terms that they considered exposed them to danger and discrimination?"

What I wish to point out now more particularly is, that now the militia are there without anybody's authority, except that of the three non-resident magistrates—although it is reported the Attorney-General was very active the morning the men were being dispatched from Victoria—that an effort will be made by the local Government to make the Dominion Government pay the expenses connected with the transportation, pay of officers and men, including maintenance, and to any such further outrage I beg to enter my protest. I hope the Governor-in-Council will refuse those payments in the first instance, because if you pay for these services the whole Provincial Government press will endeavor from that fact to throw the whole odium on your Government.

Wellington is not a municipality, consequently the commanding officer cannot proceed under the Act to collect the necessary funds to meet those expenses. There is no act your government or department could do more unjust, or unpopular, than to pay one cent of those expenses, and you might, although you know best in such matters, but I throw out the hint, notify the Provincial authorities that as the three justices—as they are called—who required the force to proceed to Wellington are Provincial officers, that the Provincial Government or the Wellington Coal Company must pay the expenses of the force from the 4th day of August, inst., until their return to Victoria.

The position of Col. Holmes and his force at the present moment is a discredit to any free country. I have failed so far to satisfy myself as to whose duty it is to withdraw the militia now at Wellington under Col. Holmes. Our magistrates will have nothing to do as to directing their movements, and there has been no occasion for calling on them as yet in aid of the civil power, as there has been no breach of the peace. The scoundrels who requested their presence at Wellington took good care not to accompany them, to direct their movements, and I fancy the military officers and men feel as much humiliation as the people among whom they have been sent. The only question with me now, and the most important one, is, whether a commanding officer was justified in regarding the three magistrates of Victoria as the proper civil authorities for exercising their functions at Wellington in defiance of the resident civil authorities I have mentioned, who had not been called upon to act, but who would have acted promptly to maintain the law under any circumstances and at all hazards. As Minister of Militia I hope you will discover some authority for the withdrawal of the force, and refuse promptly to authorize the payment of one cent of the cost of the expenditure, whether for transportation, pay of officers and men as being on active service, or towards their maintenance. Hoping to hear from you soon,

I am, dear Sir Adolphe,
Yours truly,
(Signed) D. W. GORDON.

To Adj.-General of Militia, Sir.—I have the honor in compliance with General Order No. 11 of the 5th September, to submit to you the following report regarding the calling out the Militia for duty at Wellington on the 5th August last.

On the 2nd August I received a visit from the Attorney-General of the Province, who informed me that there was serious trouble at Wellington, the coal miners being on strike and preventing persons not belonging to the miners' union from working in the mines. He asked me what I would do as regards the militia if called upon. I replied that I would comply strictly with the law bearing on the subject.

On the morning of the 3th inst., I received a requisition signed by three magistrates having jurisdiction over the whole Province of British Columbia, calling upon me to proceed with the militia to Wellington in aid of the civil power. Copies marked A and B attached.

Feeling it was not the intention of the Militia Act to permit magistrates residing miles away, and having no local knowledge of affairs, to call out troops to proceed to a locality where I knew were many resident magistrates, I asked the Attorney-General for his opinion as to the legality of the requisition. He said it was perfectly legal, and that I was compelled to act upon it.

I was further informed by the Attorney-General that a magistrate would meet me at Wellington on my arrival. Acting under the above authority, I proceeded with one officer and twenty-six men of the "C" Battery, R.C.A. and one officer and twenty-five men of the B.C. Brigade Garrison Artillery to Wellington by special train, leaving Victoria at 1:30 p.m., and arriving at Wellington at 4:30 p.m.

On our way from the station we met a procession of a couple of hundred men said to be strikers of the Wellington mines. I found them quiet and civil and during my stay in Wellington of nearly two weeks, I saw nothing to warrant intervention on the part of the troops.

When I arrived at Wellington I was informed that there was a magistrate there, but he did not meet me, nor did I see him until after I dismissed the men.

The men were quartered in cars belonging to the Esquimalt & Nanaimo Railway, meals were supplied at the Wellington Hotel.

Finding matters quiet at Wellington, I gradually reduced the detachment, permitting the men of B.C.G.A., to return to their business at Victoria. On the 18th August I telegraphed to R. Ward, Esq., J.P., one of the magistrates asking order to return as everything was quiet. I received answer which is marked "C" and attached.

On the twenty-fifth of August I again wrote to the magistrates protesting against the men remaining without the presence of a magistrates, copy of letter marked D, attached. To which I received answer to say that one of the magistrates signing the requisition would go up and report, since then I have heard nothing.

I have reduced the strength of the detachment to one Staff Sergt. and four Gunners and I feel that they should be withdrawn altogether as they are simply doing no good that I can see.

In conclusion permit me to suggest that the law be amended so as to compel the magistrates signing a requisition of this sort to accompany the officer commanding the troops and to remain with him as long as the troops are out, and in case of their refusal the officers be relieved of the penalty in the Act, and make them liable to an equal penalty if they refuse to accompany him.

At present the law is rather one sided.

Another point which requires amendment is the amount allowed as pay and for expenses. It is simply absurd to give a man 50 cents for expenses in British Columbia, or it seems to me anywhere else in Canada.

It costs at the lowest price $1.50 a day at hotels here and is it just to compel men to leave their business and to serve their country at a pecuniary loss to themselves.

The allowance should be at least double or $1 for pay and $1 for subsistence. The Provincial Government pay their special police employed under similar circumstances $2.50 a day and subsistence. I have etc.,

We the undersigned three of Her Majesty's Justices of the Peace for the Province of British Columbia, do hereby certify to you, that a riot or disturbance is anticipated at the mines of R. To Lieut.-Col. Holmes, D.A.G., Officer Commanding Canadian Militia:

Sir—With reference to the requisition handed you yesterday, you are hereby ordered to proceed with the men under your command, to Wellington, to aid civil power there. A train will be at your disposal at 1 o'clock to-day.

It appears in this case that none of the Magistrates who signed the requisition for aid, proceeded with the corps, nor would any Magistrate at the place where the force was on duty interfere, or certify that the force was no longer required.

WELLINGTON OUTRAGE.

trates who sign the requisition should be residents of the municipality responsible for the expenses incurred.

2.—If claims of this nature in British Columbia are paid by the Province, it would seem necessary that some member of the Government should sign the requisition for aid.

3.—That one of the Magistrates who signed the requisition for aid should go with the force proceeding on duty, and remain with it whilst the service lasts.—Regulations and Orders, 1887, paragraph 532.—In this case none of them would go.

4.—That the pay and allowance for subsistence for each man going out on duty, should be $2, instead of $1, now allowed by law.

(Signed) WALKER POWELL,
Colonel, Adjt.-General.

Under the circumstances reported, I think the force should not have proceeded without the Magistrate, but as the law provides for a means by which the force can be withdrawn, the commanding officer should insist on obtaining an order from a Magistrate on the spot, see paragraph 540, Regulations and Orders, 887. (signed) W. POWELL, A.G.

As a difference of opinion exists in British Columbia in respect of the withdrawal, it is desirable that the decision arrived at in Ottawa should be communicated by telegraph.

In respect of my memo. under the date of September 22, relating to a force called out in aid of the civil power in British Columbia, the Deputy Adjutant-General of that district has again written on the subject. He says the law, rather the provisions of 49 Vic., Chap. 41, sec. 24, does not agree with the instructions contained in paragraph 532 of the Regulations and Orders, 1887, inasmuch as there is nothing to show that failure or refusal on the part of the Magistrate to go out with the force absolves the military officer from the provisions of the paragraph 529 and 530 of the Regulations and Orders of 1887.

He suggests amendment of the law so as to require that one of the Magistrates who signs the requisition for aid should be compelled to go with the troops called out under the requisition for aid, and he thinks that if such a provision were made requisitions for aid would not be signed except when the services of a military force was urgently needed.

It seems to me the provisions of paragraph 532 are explicit, and that unless the Magistrate actually proceeds with the troops the military officer would be absolved from the penalties imposed by paragraph 530, but as the subject is an important one, I request consideration of it, and a decision for the guidance of military officers in the future.

(Signed) WALKER POWELL,
Colonel, Adjt.-General Commanding.
Ottawa, October 9, 1890.

Sir,—I have the honor to inform you that I have this day received intimation from the Magistrates concerned that the force at Wellington in aid of the civil power, is no longer required, and I have in consequence ordered the withdrawal of the force now stationed there. I have, etc.,

MONTREAL, Aug. 7, 1890.

W. Gordon telegraphs, "On whose representation has detachment C Battery been sent to Wellington? Neither invasion, insurrection nor imminent danger of either. People have obeyed orders of court without murmur, and presence of militia is an insult to this district, calculated to provoke trouble. Order their return to Victoria at once, and leave civil authorities free to exercise their functions." What has been done?

A. P. CARON.

VICTORIA, 28th Aug., 1890.

Gentlemen—I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of your letter of the 19th instant, stating that as illegal processions still continue in Wellington, it is advisable to continue the presence there of the two troops under my command.

The notification has been received by me regarding their return, permit me to say that I consider the presence of troops in the locality of illegal processions without the presence of a magistrate to be inadvisable, and to request that a Magistrate be directed to place himself in communication with me without delay, to accompany me to Wellington.

I may say that unless this is done, I feel it my duty to reduce the detachment now there to the smallest possible number, probably a non-commissioned officer in charge of a couple of men, or to assume the responsibility of recalling the troops altogether. I have the honor to be, gentlemen,

Dyspepsia

Was Suffering for 8 years—Restored to Perfect Health.

People have suffered more severely from dyspepsia than Mr. E. A. McMahon, a well-known grocer of Staunton, Va. He says: "In 1878 I was in excellent health, weighing 200 pounds. In that year an ailment settled into acute dyspepsia, and soon I was reduced to 162 pounds, suffering burning sensations in the stomach, palpitation of the heart, nausea, and indigestion. I could not sleep, lost all energy for my work, had fits of melancholia, and at one time I would have welcomed death. I became morose, sullen and irritable, and eight years life was a burden. I tried physicians and many remedies. One day a man employed by me suggested that I try Hood's Sarsaparilla, as it had cured his dyspepsia. I did so, and before taking the whole of one bottle began to feel like a new man. The pains to which I had been subjected, and the palpitation of the heart subsided, my appetite became easier, nausea disappeared, my entire system began to improve. With returning health and activity of body. Before I had taken 8 Years one bottle was taken I had gained my former weight and natural strength. I am today well and I ascribe it entirely to Hood's Sarsaparilla." If you decide to take Hood's Sarsaparilla you cannot be induced to buy any other.

ARE THE LARGEST COAL PRODUCERS ON THE PACIFIC COAST.

THE NANAIMO COAL (Used principally for Gas and Domestic Purposes).

THE SOUTH FIELD COAL (Steam Fuel).

THE NEW WELLINGTON COAL (House and Steam Coal) are mined by this Company only.

THE "NANAIMO" COAL gives a large percentage of Gas, a high Illuminating Power, unequalled by any other Bituminous Gas Coal the world, and a superior quality of Coke.

THE "SOUTH FIELD" COAL is now used by all the Leading Steamship Lines on the Pacific.

THE "NEW WELLINGTON" COAL, which was introduced early in the present year, has already become a favorite fuel for domestic purposes. It is a clean, hard coal, makes a bright and cheerful fire, and its lasting qualities make it the most economical fuel in the market.

The several Mines of the Company are connected with their Wharves at Nanaimo and Departure Bay, where ships of the largest tonnage are loaded at all states of the tide. Special dispatch is given to Mail and Ocean steamers.
